Kevin M. Chin joins Keeley Asset Management Corp. to be appointed as a Co-Portfolio Manager of the Keeley Mid Cap Value Strategy.

Chicago, IL (June 10th, 2013) –Keeley Asset Management Corporation announced today the hiring of veteran investment professional Kevin M. Chin. Mr. Chin will be appointed as a Co-Portfolio Manager of Keeley’s Mid Cap Value strategy, joining the current management team of Brian R. Keeley and John L. Keeley, Jr.

Prior to joining Keeley, Mr. Chin served as the Co-Manager of Cramer Rosenthal McGlynn’s small cap value and all cap value strategies. With over twenty-five years of experience in fundamental research and portfolio management, he will also perform research across our universe of small capitalization stocks.

“Kevin is a superb value investor who fits our firm’s culture and time-tested corporate restructuring approach,” said John L. Keeley Jr., the firm’s Founder and Chief Investment Officer.
